3.0 POLICY

- .1 All ACO's assigned to duties which may involve the possible use of or access to firearms shall be firearms qualified.
- .2 All ACO's assigned to duties which may involve the possible use of or access to firearms, shall be requalified annually through established procedures.
- .3 Due to the nature of the job, and the use of or access to firearms, ACO's are directly related to public health and safety, and the protection of life and property. All ACO's must be drug-free to be deemed firearms qualified.

4.0 PROCEDURES

.1 Basic Corrections Training (BCT)

The ACO Recruit firearms training and qualifications shall follow the provisions of the TSD recruit-training program.

.2 Qualification (In-Service Training)

All ACO series, i.e., ACO Recruit, ACO III, ACO IV, ACO V, ACO VI, and ACO VII, and their uniformed supervisors shall receive classroom instruction in the use, care, and safety precautions for facility service weapons. The frequency and number of classroom hours shall be in accordance with the provisions established by TSD.

.3 Qualification

- a. Any ACO serving their initial probationary period who does not qualify with a minimum passing score on their facility service weapon(s) in TSD's firearms training program and/or who fails to be drug free shall be terminated from State service.
- b. ACO's who fail to qualify on their facility's service weapon(s) within their first three months of their appointment or their employment and/or who fails to be drug free shall be terminated. Any practice prior to qualification shall be at the ACO(s) time and expense.
- c. All emergency hire ACO's shall not be assigned to a gun post.

- d. All regular ACO's who have not qualified or have failed to qualify on their facility's service weapon(s) shall, within three months from failure date, obtain the necessary firearms qualification. They shall have one additional opportunity to qualify. Any practice prior to qualification shall be at the ACO(s) time and expense. If the ACO does not qualify and/or fails to remain drug free, the ACO's employment may be terminated.
- e. Personnel actions, including but not limited to reallocations, promotions, demotions, transfers may not be recommended or approved for any ACO who has not been firearms qualified.
- f. Non-qualification of firearms training shall be documented on an ACO's performance appraisal.
